EMPLOYEE APPRECIATION GIFTING GUIDE

Quick gifts delivered to show appreciation for your admins on Administrative Professionals' Week and beyond!

WHY EMPLOYEE RECOGNITION AND APPRECIATION IS IMPORTANT

Did you know that lack of recognition is the number one reason why employees quit, according to Gallup?

Employee recognition and appreciation is one of the strongest drivers of engagement and morale within your workplace. However, it's also one of the simplest and least expensive ways to positively impact productivity, retention, motivation, and more.

Regularly engaging in appreciation and participating in holidays like Administrative Professionals' Week shows your staff that you value and see their effort. Here are some gift ideas from the Experts at Warehouse Direct that help you celebrate your hard working team.
